Lieutenant General W. Bedell Smith,
Central Intelligence Agency,
2430 E Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bedell:

I enclose the material I prepared for you on Sunday.

It will be unnecessary for you to issue any orders. I prefer to defray my own expenses as I will be doing some of my own law business.

I doubt if I will be able to stay there over Friday; I may have to go on to Virginia
Thursday night.

Sincerely yours,

Bill

Memorandum for General Walter Bedell Smith
from William J. Donovan

---**---

This is to let you know that for the last week I have been working with your organization as follows:

1) I have been able to bring on a man from Hawaii, a very capable officer who operated for OSS in southeast Asia. He was wanted by your people for a particular reason.

2) Conferred with two of your organization in order to arrange a meeting with a former member of a friendly government.

3) Arranged with the head of one of your missions to provide instructors and was able to give him the names and addresses of forty competent former OSS men.

4) Wrote to your General Counsel giving him the name of a [redacted] who has certain matters to report on the [redacted] press in this country.

5) Took up with the General Counsel the possible use of a distinguished writer here in obtaining information abroad.
